

FY23 Environmental Policy

- Toyota Boshoku Asia Co., Ltd. is committed to research and develop automobile parts that have excellent quality and are environmentally friendly. We strive to preserve and protect the environment to contribute to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The company has stipulated environmental policy to serve as operational guidelines as follows:
 1. The company shall comply with environmental laws, regulations, requirements and commitments made to the stakeholders.
 - 2. The company shall strive to prevent problems and reduce environmental impact arising from our products, operations and activities both direct and indirect by promoting activities and continual improvement, as well as considering utilizing appropriate technologies to
 - Reduce carbon dioxide (CO₂) emissions in daily operations and activities toward carbon neutrality
 - Reduce landfilled and incinerated waste by optimizing the use of natural resources and materials, and promoting reuse and recycling activities
 - Reduce amount of water consumption by promoting efficient water use
 - Strengthen the management and control of chemical substances which are contained in product or used in operating activities to prevent the possible effects on environment, health and safety issues
 3. The company shall develop new technologies to achieve product which are comfortable and ecological.
 4. The company shall establish a future society in harmony with nature.
 5. Continuously develop and improve environment management system in appropriate with context of our company